

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 5, 1965

Dear Mrs. Flagg:

The President has received your poem entitled "Inaugural Thoughts, 1965" and has asked me to express to you his heartfelt appreciation for the thoughtful expressions. He is warmed in the knowledge that he has your support.

With the President's warm regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Ivan Sinclair". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Ivan" and last name "Sinclair" clearly distinguishable.
